The Secretary of the Treasury

Dear Mr. Fowler:

As you know, the Central Intelligence Agency Retirement Act of 1964 authorizes the Director of Central Intelligence to establish and maintain a retirement system for a limited number of our employees. An integral part of this authority, of course, is the requirement that we establish a Retirement Fund and provide for periodic actuarial valuations.

We have been very fortunate in having available to us on an informal basis the actuarial advice and guidance of Mr. Cedric W. Kroll of your Office of Debt Analysis. We deeply appreciate the cooperation and assistance Mr. Kroll has offered us during the development of procedures for the administration of our retirement system and we believe it would be particularly helpful to us if you could conveniently arrange for Mr. Kroll to continue to offer this service as well as to perform the necessary periodic actuarial valuations of the CIA Retirement Fund. We will, of course, furnish whatever data he may require in whatever form would be most useful.

The cooperation we have already received is deeply appreciated, and we hope you will agree to the continuation of this helpful and productive association.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Simon:

I am taking this opportunity on the occasion of the approaching retirement of Mr. Cedric W. Kroll, the Treasury Department Actuary, to express my appreciation on behalf of the Agency for his splendid cooperation and assistance in providing actuarial advice and guidance in connection with the CIA Retirement System and preparation of required periodic valuations.

This service has been provided since the inception of the CIA Retirement System in response to an Agency request to which there was gracious agreement by the then Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Henry H. Fowler, by letter dated 25 June 1965.

Mr. Kroll's assistance through the years has been characterized by complete responsiveness to our needs for guidance and assistance whenever requested. I would ask that he be informed of our sincere appreciation of the contribution he has made to the administration of our retirement fund. We wish him every happiness in his retirement.

Sincerely,

George Bush
